(2017/2206(INI))

Amendment 1
Florent Marcellesi
on behalf of the Verts/ALE Group

Draft opinion
Recital - A a (new)

Draft opinion

Amendment

-Aa. whereas indigenous women face a complex system of mutually reinforcing human rights abuses that derive from intersecting forms of vulnerability, including discrimination based on gender, class, ethnic origins, violations of rights of self-determination and control of resources;

Or. en

Amendment 2
Marijana Petir

Draft opinion
Recital - A a (new)

Draft opinion

Amendment

-Aa. whereas land grabbing is a complex issue which requires a comprehensive international solution; whereas the protection of indigenous women and girls should be notably emphasised;

Or. en

Amendment 3
Florent Marcellesi
on behalf of the Verts/ALE Group

Draft opinion
Recital - A b (new)

Draft opinion

Amendment

-Ab. whereas it has been estimated that one in three indigenous women are raped during their lifetime; whereas indigenous women are more likely to experience different forms of sexual violence and have been victims of harassment, extortion and rape also by state officials and in the context of business activities, particularly of extractive industries, on indigenous lands; whereas there is significant underreporting of these crimes;

Or. en

Amendment 4 Marijana Petir

Draft opinion Recital - A b (new)

Draft opinion

Amendment

-Ab. whereas land grabbing is not necessarily a result of foreign investments but the grabs may be conducted by governments and local communities;

Or. en

Amendment 5
Florent Marcellesi
on behalf of the Verts/ALE Group

Draft opinion Recital - A c (new)

Draft opinion

Amendment

-Ac. whereas indigenous women face barriers to sexual and reproductive health and rights, including lack of sexual and reproductive health advice, lack of access to facilities and supplies and legislation banning abortion even in cases of rape, leading to high levels of maternity mortality, teenage pregnancy and sexually transmitted diseases;

Or. en

Amendment 6
Florent Marcellesi
on behalf of the Verts/ALE Group

Draft opinion
Recital - A d (new)

Draft opinion

Amendment

-Ad. whereas indigenous women face widespread impunity regarding the violations of their rights, especially due to the denial of their right to remedy, the lack of monitoring mechanisms and gender-disaggregated data;

Or. en

Amendment 7
Florent Marcellesi
on behalf of the Verts/ALE Group

Draft opinion
Recital - A e (new)

Draft opinion

Amendment

-Ae. whereas indigenous peoples' lands and territories tend to be also areas of high biological diversity and therefore need to be subject to special protection;

Or. en

Amendment 8
Florent Marcellesi
on behalf of the Verts/ALE Group

Draft opinion
Recital - A f (new)

Draft opinion

Amendment

-Af. whereas the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples provides that indigenous peoples need to be consulted and their free, informed and prior consent given to any measure affecting their lands and territories; whereas the implementation of this principle requires full participation of indigenous women in these processes;

Or. en

Amendment 9
Florent Marcellesi
on behalf of the Verts/ALE Group

Draft opinion
Recital - A g (new)

Draft opinion

Amendment

-Ag. whereas the establishment of big infrastructure projects without the free, informed and prior consent of indigenous peoples has led to systematic violations of indigenous land rights and self-determination which have disproportionately affected indigenous women;

Or. en

Amendment 15
Ángela Vallina, Maria Lidia Senra Rodríguez

Draft opinion
Paragraph 1 a (new)

Draft opinion

Amendment

1a. Having regard to the increase in private forms of compensation through which private undertakings offer women who are victims of violence financial compensation in return for signing an agreement not to sue the undertaking; whereas States bear the primary responsibility for ensuring compliance with international commitments with respect to indigenous peoples' rights and must therefore be primarily responsible for avoiding infringements and promoting truth, justice and reparations for the victims;

Or. es

Amendment 16
Ángela Vallina, Maria Lidia Senra Rodríguez

Draft opinion
Paragraph 1 b (new)

Draft opinion

Amendment

1b. Whereas the violations of the right to self-determination perpetuated by neo-colonial power structures and state practices have a negative impact on indigenous peoples, particularly women and girls;

Or. es

Amendment 17
Ángela Vallina, Maria Lidia Senra Rodríguez

Draft opinion
Paragraph 1 c (new)

Draft opinion

Amendment

1c. Having regard to the direct link between collective rights and individual rights of indigenous women, given that human rights violations at an individual level have a negative impact on collective efforts to assert the rights of indigenous peoples as a group;

Or. es

Amendment 18
Ángela Vallina, Maria Lidia Senra Rodríguez

Draft opinion
Paragraph 1 d (new)

Draft opinion

Amendment

1d. Whereas the scant protection of indigenous peoples' land and land-ownership rights exposes indigenous women to forced displacement, exploitation and trafficking in human beings, which makes it easier for governments to impose destructive projects in their territories without obtaining prior consent following a genuine process of consultation of the indigenous peoples;

Or. es

Amendment 19
Maria Lidia Senra Rodríguez, Ángela Vallina

Draft opinion
Paragraph 1 e (new)

Draft opinion

Amendment

Ie. Whereas forcible land grabbing by private companies is usually accompanied by the imposition of private security or military forces, leading inter alia to an increase in direct and indirect violence indigenous peoples' territories, directly affecting communities and, in particular, social leaders and women;

Or. es

Amendment 20

Ángela Vallina, Maria Lidia Senra Rodríguez

Draft opinion

Paragraph 1 f (new)

Draft opinion

Or. es

Amendment 21

Ángela Vallina, Maria Lidia Senra Rodríguez

Draft opinion

Paragraph 1 g (new)

Draft opinion

Amendment

Ig. Whereas the increasing liberalisation and deregulation of the market has led to direct foreign investment in indigenous peoples' territories without their prior consent or a genuine process of consultation, resulting in violations of the human rights of indigenous women; whereas development cannot be measured on the basis of growth indicators, but should primarily take account of the reduction of poverty and inequality;

Or. es

Amendment 22

Ángela Vallina, Maria Lidia Senra Rodríguez

Draft opinion

Paragraph 1 h (new)

Draft opinion

Amendment

1h. Calls on the EU to engage in constructive negotiations on a United Nations treaty on transnational corporations guaranteeing respect for the human rights of indigenous peoples, and of women and girls in particular;

2. Underlines the direct impact that climate change has on indigenous women, forcing them to abandon their traditional practices or to be displaced; asks all states, including the EU and the Member States, to include indigenous peoples and rural communities in their strategies for tackling climate change, taking account of gender-specific factors;

Amendment 26
Arne Gericke

Draft opinion
Paragraph 2

Draft opinion

2. Underlines the direct impact that climate change has on indigenous women, forcing them to abandon their traditional practices or to be displaced; calls on all states and international organisations to actively include indigenous women in the design and implementation of climate mitigation and adaptation policies;

Amendment

2. Notes the direct impact that registration of property has on indigenous peoples, forcing them to abandon their traditional practices or to be displaced; calls on all states and international organisations to actively pursue the recognition of traditional ownership of lands by indigenous peoples who have had longstanding customary ownership;

Or. en

Amendment 27
Maria Arena

Draft opinion
Paragraph 2 a (new)

Draft opinion

2a. Stresses that women are not only victims but also powerful agents of change who can formulate and execute efficient climate strategies and/or solutions in relation to adaptation and mitigation and can build climate resilience as a product of their diverse areas of experience and practical knowledge; asks the Commission and the Member States, therefore, in their foreign policy, to support women as major players in the fight against climate change;

Amendment

Or. fr

Amendment 28
Maria Arena

Draft opinion
Paragraph 2 b (new)

Draft opinion

Amendment

2b. Notes with concern that women with children and girls are the most vulnerable groups in climate-change-related population movements, where they are exposed to violations of their fundamental rights; asks the Commission, therefore, to set up an expert group to draft a definition on the basis of which an international legal framework can be established for persons displaced through the effects of climate change; advocates too that the international community address the issue of climate-related migration with a view to producing a shared definition, given the current absence of agreed provision for it in international law;

Or. fr

Amendment 29
Maria Arena

Draft opinion
Paragraph 2 c (new)

Draft opinion

Amendment

2c. Takes note of the alarming findings of the study published by the UN in 2010 indicating that the incidence of violence and rape affecting women members of indigenous populations is higher than that for the female population globally; calls, therefore, on the Member States and the EU to condemn unequivocally the use of violence, including sexual violence, against indigenous women; considers that special attention should be given to women and girls who are victims of violence, ensuring that they have access to emergency medical and psychological support;

Or. fr

Amendment 30
Maria Arena

Draft opinion
Paragraph 2 d (new)

Draft opinion

Amendment

2d. Calls therefore on the Commission, in the context of its foreign policy, to work together with civil society and human rights organisations to ensure that the human rights of indigenous peoples in reception centres are upheld, particularly in respect of vulnerable women and girls;

Or. fr

Amendment 31
Maria Arena

Draft opinion
Paragraph 2 e (new)

Draft opinion

Amendment

2e. Notes, too, the many risks that indigenous populations face, including from poverty, a poor level of education and problems of access to health care; calls on all states to commit themselves to ensuring that indigenous peoples and particularly girls and women have proper access to health and education, to promoting intercultural public policies, to incorporating indigenous languages and cultures into their school programmes and to developing initiatives to raise awareness in civil society of the rights of indigenous peoples, in order to combat stereotyping;
