Tajani to EU Leaders: to manage migration flows we must first stop departures, strengthen external borders, reform Dublin and stabilise Libya

Brussels Press Release 29-06-2018

“...The immediate priority right now is to close the Mediterranean route, strengthen our external borders and reform the European asylum system. In parallel to this we must support the stabilisation of Libya, finance centres for the support of asylum seekers in transit countries and invest in Africa to provide opportunities for young Africans in their own countries” declared President Tajani in a roundup of his address to the European Council on the migration crises. Speech by the President of the European Parliament to the European Council meeting on 28 June 2018

Brussels Speeches 28-06-2018

This European Council meeting will be remembered for a long time, but we cannot yet say whether it will be remembered as a success or a failure. That will depend on us, on the responses we offer to our fellow citizens’ most pressing concerns, in particular those linked to the migration crisis which is putting our cooperation arrangements and our determination to work together to a serious test.
