Latest News

High-level conference on cultural heritage in Europe

Brussels  Speeches  -  26-06-2018

I am honoured to open this conference on cultural heritage in Europe, which is being held as part of the European Year of Cultural Heritage, 2018. The European Parliament, and in particular its Committee on Education and Culture, has been a consistent advocate of this initiative. (Read more)

President Tajani to open High level conference on European year of cultural heritage tomorrow

Brussels  Press Release  -  25-06-2018

The President of the European Parliament, Antonio Tajani, will open the High-Level Conference on the European Year for Cultural Heritage tomorrow. The event - "Cultural heritage in Europe: linking past and future" - will take place at 14:00 at the European Parliament's hemicycle in Brussels, as part of the initiatives for the European Year dedicated to cultural heritage. (Read more)

Mission of the President of the European Parliament, Antonio Tajani to Niger, 16 to 18 July 2018

Brussels  Press Release  -  22-06-2018

From 16 to 18 July 2018, the President of the European Parliament, Antonio Tajani, will visit Niger for an official visit. It will focus on three aspects: security and stability, migration and the need for investments. (Read more)

Meeting Tajani-Kurz: migration is Europe’s biggest challenge and the Austrian Presidency has to provide concrete solutions

Vienna  Press Release  -  19-06-2018
"Migration is our biggest challenge. It's putting at risk the very future of the European Union" said European Parliament President, Antonio Tajani, following a meeting with Austrian Federal Chancellor, Sebastian Kurz. "In the next six months, under the coordination of the Austrian Presidency, the EU and its Member States are called to give concrete answers to the concerns of 500 million citizens. We cannot afford to fail", stressed Tajani. (Read more)

Meeting between the President of the European Parliament, Antonio Tajani, and the Director General of the FAO, José Graziano da Silva, focusing on migration and the next EU summit

Rome Press Release - - 18-06-2018

“To solve the problem of migration flows and stop the departures we must also fight hunger and famine in Africa. Millions of people continue to die, or live on the brink of death, and hundreds of thousands are heading to Europe in search of hope.” said the President of the European Parliament, Antonio Tajani, coming out of a meeting held today in Rome with the Director General of the United Nations Organization for Food and Agriculture (FAO), José Graziano da Silva. Migration flows, also in the context of the next European Council summit, topped the meeting’s agenda. (Read more)

See all the news