Joint Parliamentary Meeting on The "Stockholm Programme" 2010-2014 - The Parliamentary dimension of a European Area of Freedom, Security and Justice, 16-17 November 2009, European Parliament, Brussels

Dear Member of Parliament, dear friends,

This is to invite you to the next Joint Parliamentary Meeting (JPM) on The "Stockholm Programme" 2010-2014 - The Parliamentary dimension of a European Area of Freedom, Security and Justice. The event will take place in Brussels from 16th to 17th of November 2009 and is co-organised by the European Parliament and the Swedish Council Presidency. It will gather about 150 national and 60 European Parliamentarians.

As usual in this context we will organise a "Political Family Meeting" with sandwich lunch between Greens/EFA deputies from the national and the European Parliament, as well as experts and advisors in the field. It will take place on Monday, 16th November 2009, from 12:30 to 15:00 hrs, in room ASP 1 G 2 of the European Parliament. Simultaneous interpretation in English, French and German language will be provided.

During this meeting we would like to exchange views on the proposed Stockholm Programme with view to the JPM and the upcoming Council on Justice and Home Affairs. A draft agenda and preparatory documentation will be sent to you in due course.

Please let us know at your earliest convenience if you are part of your national delegation and notify your participation to me by Email: joachim.denkinger@europarl.europa.eu.

Looking forward to meeting you in Brussels,

Best regards
Jochen
