

EU Recovery and Resilience Facility: National allocations for grants

*30 % allocation based on summer 2020 economic forecast

Source: EPRS, based on European Commission data.

The Recovery and Resilience Facility, the main implementing tool of the EU recovery instrument, aims to mitigate the economic and social impact of the coronavirus pandemic and make European economies and societies more sustainable, resilient and better prepared for the challenges and opportunities of the green and digital transitions.

It will make €672.5 billion (2018 prices) in loans and grants available to support reforms and investments undertaken by EU Member States. Grants under the Recovery and Resilience Facility amount to €312.5 billion. Their geographical distribution depends on a number of factors, with final allocations already known for 2021-2022 and estimated for 2023. As for loans under the same facility, the maximum amount for each Member State is capped at 6.8 % of its GNI in 2019.
