Notes:

- The EU Digital Single Market is a harmonised and integrated European market without barriers that would hinder the use of digital and online technologies and services; which encourages cross-border online trade, investments in new online services and applications as well as in digital infrastructure and high level of e-skills and e-readiness.

- Completing the digital Single Market for Europe is the aim of one of the Europe 2020 flagship initiatives: A digital agenda for Europe. The aim is to speed up the roll-out of high-speed internet and reap the benefits of a digital single market for households and firms. European Council indicates at 2015 as the deadline for completing the Digital Single Market.
