| Deadline for applications                                | 24 November 2019 at 23:59 CET                                                                           |

Background

Every two years, the European Youth Event (EYE) brings together thousands of young people from all over the European Union and beyond to shape and share their ideas on the future of Europe. EYE2020 will take place at the European Parliament in Strasbourg on 29 and 30 May 2020. Parliament expects to welcome 9000 participants.

It is a unique opportunity for 16 to 30 year-olds to meet and inspire each other and exchange views with experts, activists, influencers and decision-makers right in the heart of European democracy. During two days, young Europeans have the opportunity to take part in a programme that was created together with EYE partners, youth organisations and participants and is filled with a variety of activities and artistic performances.

Issues that are important to young people and European democracies are included in the programme. The activities focus on the main themes of the event (thematic tags):

#EDUCATION #CULTURE #SOCIETY #ENVIRONMENT #INNOVATION #SOCIAL #ECONOMY #DIGITAL #HEALTH #DEMOCRACY #PARTICIPATION #RIGHTS #MIGRATION #SECURITY #SUSTAINABILITY #WORLD #WORK

For more information about the event, please check the EYE website.

What is the aim of the EYE Report?

1. The EYE Report gathers the concerns, hopes and ideas of the young people and presents them to the Members of the European Parliament (MEPs). The collected ideas will give decision-makers a general overview of what action young people would like to see in various policy areas.

2. The EYE Report ties the event to the follow-up EYE hearings with MEPs who sit in the relevant parliamentary committees. The most inspiring and interesting ideas will be presented to and discussed with MEPs, as a source of inspiration for the European Parliament’s legislative agenda.

1 Important notice: We do not charge a fee at any stage of the recruitment process. If you have any questions concerning persons or companies claiming to be recruiting on behalf of the EYE and requesting the payment of a fee, please contact eye@europarl.europa.eu
Who is the target audience of the EYE Report?

1. MEPs and other European decision-makers are the prime readership for potential follow-up of ideas in politics on a European level.

2. National, regional and local decision-makers/authorities are the prime readership for potential follow-up of ideas on a national, regional and local level.

3. Youth stakeholders can use these ideas as inspiration for their future work.

4. EYE participants can live through the event again and use their own ideas as inspiration for their activities as citizens.

5. The general public can better understand what the EYE is about, and what ideas young people have for their future.

What is the format and structure of the EYE Report?

The EYE Report collects the ideas that were developed before the event on www.europeanyouthideas.eu, and those proposed during EYE2020 in Strasbourg. It also tells the reader about the EYE and conveys the unique spirit of the event.

Structure of the EYE Report:

1. A blog section on the www.europeanyouthideas.eu with articles about the EYE and main ideas discussed before and during the event. Each article will follow one thematic tag and describe some of the most interesting and inspiring ideas suggested under this thematic tag. Multimedia content created during the event will be included in the blog articles.

2. An online search tool on a separate website linked to www.europeanyouthideas.eu, allowing to:
   - search the ideas based on keywords
   - filter the ideas based on the thematic tags mentioned above
   - filter the ideas based on the audience they address: ideas for policy makers (Members of the European Parliament, European Commission, national authorities, local municipalities), youth organisations, or young people.

The total number of ideas on the online search tool could reach 1000.

What are the responsibilities of the Editor-in-Chief?

The selected Editors-in-Chief will

1. Develop a concept for the collection of the ideas during the EYE
2. Be involved in the selection of the team of reporters
3. Prepare the working agenda for the team meetings
4. Manage the team of reporters before, during and after the EYE: organise team and individual briefings, plan working schedules, allocate tasks, etc.
5. Supervise the team of reporters in the execution of their tasks (editing, tagging, classifying and researching the ideas developed before and during the EYE)
6. Edit the content of the EYE Report.

Who are we looking for?

Two Chief Editors with knowledge of EU policies and experience in managing a team:

- One Editor-in-Chief to lead the team of five reporters responsible for collecting and editing “text based ideas” (see comments on www.europeanyouthideas.eu for the concept of an "idea")
- One Editor-in-Chief to lead the team of three multimedia reporters responsible for producing and editing multimedia content during the event.

Language

English is the production language of the report and working language of the team. Therefore, the Editors-in-Chief must have excellent English language skills. Knowledge of other languages is an asset.
Availabilities
Most of the chief editor’s work will be done from home, online and in cooperation with the EYE team. Meetings of the editors, reporters and responsible from the EYE team will mostly take place over the phone, internet or by means of visio conference. All the team members need to be present in Brussels to participate in a preparatory meeting in April 2020 (date tbc). The team will also be present during the EYE in Strasbourg (28-31/05), and be available a week after the EYE for a meeting in Brussels.

The main work of shaping the report, e.g. editing the ideas, writing blog articles and putting it all together will happen between 1 and 30 June 2020.
