

Kristen Sukalac has worked in agricultural policy since 1999.

She worked for global trade associations for a decade -- first for CropLife International and then the International Fertilizer Industry Association. Since 2008, she has been a Consulting Partner at Prospero & Partners, which has supported the biostimulants industry and provided the secretariat of the European Biostimulants Industry Council since its creation in 2011.