

Biography

Kloe Tricot O'Farrell is Saferworld's EU Policy and Advocacy Coordinator based in Brussels. She leads and coordinates Saferworld's policy and advocacy on conflict prevention and peacebuilding approaches at the EU level, with a thematic focus on security and justice, peace and sustainable development, peacebuilding approaches to counter-terrorism as well as arms transfer controls. In particular, her work currently focusses on the EU's approach to displacement in the Horn of Africa. Kloe also informs and supports advocacy efforts of Saferworld's thematic and geographic programmes, including at the EU level, by providing policy support, advocacy trainings and through regular engagement with EU and international donor officials. Her research background is in security issues with a focus on arms export and brokering controls. Kloe holds an MA in International Relations from Université libre de Bruxelles and an MA in War Studies from King's College London.

About Saferworld

Saferworld is an independent international organisation working to prevent violent conflict and build safer lives. We work with local people affected by conflict to improve their safety and sense of security, and conduct wider research and analysis. We use this evidence and learning to improve local, national and international policies and practices that can help build lasting peace. Our priority is people – we believe that everyone should be able to lead peaceful, fulfilling lives, free from insecurity and violent conflict. We are a not-for-profit organisation with programmes in nearly 20 countries and territories across Africa, the Middle East, Asia and Europe.
