SHORT BIOGRAPHIES OF THE EXPERTS

Peter Fraser

IEA - Head of the Gas, Coal and Power Markets Division

Peter Fraser rejoined the International Energy Agency in December 2016 as Head of the Gas, Coal and Power Markets Division. This is his second sojourn with the IEA, having been a Senior Electricity Policy Advisor there from 1998-2004. In between, Peter worked at the Ontario Energy Board, the energy regulator in the Canadian province of Ontario, most recently as Vice President, Consumer Protection and Industry Performance. From 1989-98, he was an energy policy advisor at the Ontario Ministry of Energy. Peter holds master's degrees in physics from Queen's University and in environmental studies from York University and a BSc in physics from the University of Toronto.

Katja Yafimava

Oxford Institute for Energy Studies, Natural Gas Research Programme
Senior research fellow

Dr. Katja Yafimava is Senior Research Fellow on the Oxford Institute for Energy Studies Natural Gas Research Programme. She holds a D.Phil. in Geography and an M.Phil. in Russian and East European Studies from Oxford University. She is the author of The Transit Dimension of EU Energy Security: Russian Gas Transit Across Ukraine, Belarus, and Moldova (OUP 2011). She is also the author and co-author of chapters in other OUP books, such as The Russian Gas Matrix: how markets are driving change (2014), The Pricing of Internationally Traded Gas (2012), Russian and CIS Gas Markets and their Impact on Europe (2009) (all OUP) and in Research Handbook on International Energy Law (Edward Elgar, 2014) as well as many research papers on gas transit disputes. Her current research focus is gas regulation, both in Europe and Russia, with publications including 'The EU Third Package for Gas and the Gas Target Model: major contentious issues inside and outside the EU' (2013), 'The Evolution of Gas Pipeline Regulation in Russia – third party access, capacity allocation and transportation tariffs' (2015), 'Russian Gas Transit across Ukraine Post-2019: pipeline scenarios, gas flow consequences, and regulatory constraints' (2016) and, most recently, 'The OPAL Exemption Decision: past, present, and future' (2017).

Jan Ingwersen

ENTSO G - General Manager

Jan Ingwersen was designated by the ENTSG General Assembly as General Manager for the term 1st January 2016 – 31st December 2018. Jan has been with ENTSG since January 2014 in the position as Business Area Manager for Market. Jan is seconded from Energinet.dk in Denmark.

Jan has been working in the gas industry for more than 25 years, holding positions at Energinet.dk, Gastra, DONG Energy as well as consultancies. He holds a technical MSc from University of Aalborg, Denmark, supplemented with a commercial degree from Copenhagen Business School and a management education from IMD, Lausanne.

Jan has been involved in most parts of the gas sector value chain. He was heading the implementation of the gas market liberalization in Denmark for Energinet.dk/Gastra (2000-2005) – including development of network codes. He has been heading DONG Energy's storage and offshore transmission activities (2006-2013), was establishing the company's gas regulatory affairs department and was in the same period responsible for a 6-year 'two-way gas release programme'.

Tomislav Jurekovic

Head HERA / Head of CEER's SoS WG

Tomislav Jurekovi was born in 1959 in Zagreb. He graduated with a degree in energy and power engineering from the Faculty of Mechanical Engineering of Zagreb University, where he also attended graduate studies.

Mr. Jurekovi spent most of his professional career in various tiers of natural gas business – from gas distribution to supply. As a Business development manager of Zagreb Gas Distribution Co. (GPZ) he became involved with international gas and energy scene. Fluent in English and German, during the 1990s he represented Croatia in International Gas Union and UNECE Working Party on Gas.

After brief spells in consulting activities he joined Croatian-German JV holding co. Croplin Ltd., during which time he was actively cooperating with Croatian energy authorities on energy sector reform topics and in drafting early versions of national gas legislation.

Mr. Jurekovi has joined the ranks of Croatian Energy Regulatory Agency (HERA) in 2011, when he was appointed by the Croatian Parliament as a Commissioner. Since July 2012, he is serving as the President of the Board of Commissioners, with his second and full term as the President confirmed by the Parliament in July 2014. In this position, he is also representing Croatian energy regulatory body in the CEER General Assembly, ACER Board of Regulators and Energy Community Regulatory Board. In May 2015, Mr. Jurekovi was re-elected by the General Assembly of CEER to the position of CEER Vice President.

As an avid and outspoken gas and energy industry watcher, Mr. Jurekovi has published extensively and spoken on numerous occasions in front of domestic and international audiences.
