

Public Hearing on
"Meeting the EU's 2030 emission reduction targets: the role of the land use and forestry sectors (LULUCF)"

organised by the Committee on the Environment, Public Health and Food Safety (ENVI)

30 January 2017, 17h00 - 18h30
European Parliament, Room JAN 4Q2, Brussels

DRAFT PROGRAMME

17h00 - 17h05	Welcome and opening by the Chair
17h05 - 17h10	Opening statement by the Rapporteur
17h10 - 17h20	“Carbon implications in using wood products - the Swiss example”, Mr Hansruedi Streiff, Swiss Timber Industry Association
17h20 - 17h30	“Forests and climate change”, Dr Peter Mayer, Austrian Research Centre for Forests
17h30 - 17h40	“Robust and credible accounting rules for forests”, Mr Giacomo Grassi, Joint Research Centre
17h40 - 17h45	“EU climate policy – recognising and making use of the potential offered by land use and forestry” Mr Steffen Pingen, Copa-Cogeca
17h45 - 17h50	“The Paris Agreement and the 1.5 degrees target: new challenges for LULUCF sector”, Ms. Hannah Mowat, Fern
17h50- 18h20	Q&A session with Members
18h20 - 18h25	Concluding remarks by the Rapporteur
18h25 - 18h30	Closing statement by the Chair