VADEMECUM OF THE SPEAKERS

PUBLIC HEARING

COMMITTEE ON THE INTERNAL MARKET AND CONSUMER PROTECTION (IMCO)

Wednesday 21.06.2017 - 10:30-12:30 JÓZSEF ANTALL BUILDING - ROOM 6Q2

European Services

e-card

Rapporteurs:

Anneleen VAN BOSSUYT & Morten LØKKEGAARD

Dansk Erhverv – Confederation of Danish Enterprise

Kasper Ernest

Director, EU & International Department

Member of the Management Board, responsible for European and International Affairs. The department includes offices in Brussels as well as Copenhagen.

Entrustments and other current work:

- Member of the Danish Implementation Council The Danish Implementation Council advices the Danish Government on implementation of EU-legislation and have the task of identifying goldplating of EU-legislation in Denmark.
- Board Member of the Healthcare DENMARK
 The consortium Healthcare DENMARK is a public-private-partnership with the aim of promoting Danish companies operating within the field of or as suppliers to the healthcare system.
- External Lecturer at the Copenhagen Business School Giving lectures on European and comparative interest representation systems, the EU governance system, and theory and practice of European PA strategy.
- Board Member of the Society of European Affairs Professionals (SEAP)

Society for high standards of ethical behaviour amongst European public affairs professionals. Develops, trains, and educates in the code of good conduct. Defends the interests of PA professionals in the EU.

• Rapporteur for the Internal Market Group of the European Commission's high Level Group on Business Services
The HLG delivered recommendations to the European Commission with regards to the development of policy at European level.

Kommerskollegium/National Board of Trade, Sweden

Agnès Courades Allebeck

Head of the Department for the Internal Market at the National Board of Trade

Agnès Courades Allebeck is Head of the Department for the Internal Market at the Swedish National Board of Trade. She was previously in charge of the Department for WTO and Trade Developments at the same governmental agency.

As the Swedish Internal Market authority, the National Board of Trade hosts several EU functions and contact points as Sweden's Solvit Centre, IMI, the Point of single contact, the Product contact point, as well as the noticification procedures for goods and services.

Agnès has post-graduated in Political Science and International Law at the University of Aix Marseille III (France) and earned a Diploma of Advanced European Studies in International Economics at the College of Europe in Bruges (Belgium).

ETUC

Thiébaut Weber Confederal Secretary

Thiébaut Weber was elected as ETUC Confederal Secretary at the Paris Congress in 2015. He is a young trade unionist and former student activist in his native France. He is a member of the Confédération Française Démocratique du Travail, and in 2007 started work with the CFDT as a youth delegate, then in 2014 as political advisor on issues including international and European affairs. Between 2011 and 2013 he was President of the ETUC Youth Committee.

Born in Mulhouse, France, he went to the University of Haute-Alsace to study history, which remains one of his passions. During his studies he became President of the Federative Association of Upper Rhine Students in 2005, then of the Federation of General Student Unions (FAGE) in 2006.

In 2014, Thiébaut completed a Master's degree in Anticipation and Management of Employment and Skills at the University of Paris 1. He is also an enthusiastic reader and rugby player.

BUSINESSEUROPE

Guido Lobrano

Deputy Director

Legal Affairs Department

Internal Market Department

As Deputy Director for legal affairs and internal market at BusinessEurope, Guido Lobrano is the coordinator for single market policy and is directly responsible for digital economy and e-commerce, as well as privacy, data economy and everything related to digital transformation. He is also specifically in charge of competition policy and state aid.

Before joining BUSINESSEUROPE, Guido worked as a lawyer in the US, France, Italy and Brussels for international firms specialised in EU law. He also worked as an external expert for the European Economic and Social Committee, and used to be lecturer of EU law at the University of Sassari (Italy) and visiting lecturer in other Italian universities.

FIEC, The European Construction Industry Federation

Ulrich Paetzold
Director General

- Director General of FIEC since 1994 and German lawyer (Frankfurt Bar) since 1985.
- Director of FIEC's Brussels office, 1989-1994.
- Deputy Director of EIC (European International Contractors) and the International Affairs Department of the German construction industry federation HDB 1986-89.
- Member of the Commission's Advisory Committee on Opening up Public Procurement, 2000-2011.
- Delegate in the European Economic and Social Committee's CCMI since 2007.

FIEC, created in 1905, has 29 national member federations in 26 European countries, representing SMEs and "global players" active in building and civil engineering.

FIEC is the Social Partner representing the employers in the European Sectoral Social Dialogue of the construction industry.

CERFRANCE

Bruno Clicquot de Mentque CEO

Bruno Clicquot de Mentque is CEO at CERFRANCE, a French Company specialized in consulting and accounting for small and mid caps.

He was previously appointed as banker in the field of corporate financing and financial services in international French international Banks such as CREDIT LYONNAIS / LCL and then CREDIT AGRICOLE.

Education: MBA HEC and Master in Law (Paris-Panthéon Sorbonne).

Insurance Europe

Nicolas Jeanmart

Head of personal insurance, general insurance & macroeconomics

As head of Insurance Europe's personal insurance, general insurance and macroeconomics department, Nicolas Jeanmart contributes to the global and European debates affecting the non-life and life insurance sectors. He is also involved in the discussions on financial stability, with a particular focus on the question of systemic risk in insurance.

Prior to joining Insurance Europe in November 2010, Nicolas worked for the European Savings Banks Group (ESBG), where he held various positions, culminating in four years as head of the banking supervision and economic affairs department.

This position entailed notably the responsibility for representing the interests of Europe's savings and retail banks in the discussions on global bank capital requirements frameworks (Basel II and Basel III).

During his time at the ESBG, he also acted as the secretariat for various working groups and committees of the European Banking Industry Committee, the platform representing the entire European banking industry.

In his earlier career he provided consultancy and training services, primarily to the financial sector, in Belgium and Luxembourg. Nicolas is a Belgian/French national.

He holds a master's degree in business engineering, as well as degrees in European integration and development and in computer sciences.