Workshop on Implications of 'Brexit' for the EU Agri-Food Sector and the CAP

The lion's share of Thursday's committee meeting will be devoted to a workshop on the highly topical issue of the impact of Brexit on the EU's agri-food sector and on the CAP. It will delve into 3 specific aspects of Brexit: (1) its impact on the CAP budget (2) its impact on EU-UK agricultural trade flows and (3) possible transitional arrangements in agriculture in light of the future EU-UK relationship.

An impressive array of experts will be present to brief Members on these issues, including Ms Eulalia Rubio and Mr Jorg Haas from the Jacques Delors Institute, Ms Cecilia Bellora and Mr Jean Fouré from the Paris-based Centre for International Research and Economic Modelling (CIEM) and Mr Alan Matthews, Professor at Trinity College Dublin.
