

Newsletter - issue XXXX - April 2018

Introductory words by Marita Ulvskog

The next EMPL meeting will take place on 25 April 2018.

First of all, I am particularly pleased that the provisional agreement resulting from inter-institutional negotiations and concerning 'Posting of workers in the framework of the provision of services' will now be put to vote.

In the course of the meeting, Members will also consider the draft opinion to the ECON report on 'Pan-European Personal Pension Products' (PEPP), as well as the draft opinion on '2019 Budget - Trialogue mandate'.

Subsequently, the agenda also foresees a number of other votes: the draft opinions on the posting of drivers, on driving times and breaks in the transport sector, as well as on the 'Mobilisation of the European Globalization Adjustment Fund, following an application from Belgium' will all be voted upon during the meeting.

Finally, a number of presentations are scheduled. The European Court of Auditors will present its Special Report on free movement of workers, while DG EMPL will introduce its evaluation of the agencies under the remit of the EMPL Committee. A study concerning the 'Integration of refugees in Austria, Germany and Sweden' will also be presented.

Thank you for your attention.

Marita Ulvskog, First Vice-Chair, Acting Chair

Posting of workers in the framework of the provision of services

Vote on provisional agreement resulting from inter-institutional negotiations

On 25 April, EMPL Committee will vote on the provisional agreement resulting from inter-institutional negotiations and concerning 'Posting of workers in the framework of the provision of services'.

Co-rapporteurs: Elisabeth Morin-Chartier (EPP, FR), Agnes Jongerius (S&D, NE)

Pan-European Personal Pension Product (PEPP)

Consideration of draft opinion

On 25 April, EMPL Members will consider the draft opinion to the ECON report on Pan-European Personal Pension Products (PEPP). In his draft opinion, the Rapporteur highlights the importance of limiting the costs for consumers when switching providers or exploiting portability services. The Rapporteur also proposes to introduce mechanisms that compensate for inflation in the default investment option, and calls for the provision of clear information to subscribers.

Rapporteur: Heinz K. Becker (EPP, DE)

2019 budget - Trilogue mandate

Consideration of draft opinion

On 25 April, Members will consider the draft opinion "2019 Budget - Mandate for the Trilogue". Daniele Viotti, general Rapporteur for the 2019 EU budget, will participate in this debate, and EMPL Members will have the opportunity to present their priorities for the negotiations of next year's budget.

Rapporteur: Marita Ulvskog (S&D, SE)

Integration of refugees in Austria, Germany and Sweden

Presentation of a study

On 25 April the study 'Integration of refugees in Austria, Germany and Sweden' will be presented. The study focuses on refugee integration policies in the main destination countries, and it follows a similar study - concerning the policies of the most important countries of arrival, i.e. Greece, Hungary and Italy -, which was presented during the March EMPL meeting.

Evaluation of the agencies under the remit of the EMPL committee

Presentation of a study

On 25 April, DG EMPL will present a study on the evaluation of the agencies under the remit of the EMPL committee. The work - produced by external contractors - aims to assess the effectiveness, efficiency and relevance of such four agencies, as well as other dimensions.

Report "Free Movement of Workers – the fundamental freedom ensured but better targeting of EU funds would aid worker mobility" Presentation of a Special Report by the European Court of Auditors

On 25 April, the Court of Auditors' Special Report "Free Movement of Workers – the fundamental freedom ensured but better targeting of EU funds would aid worker mobility" will be presented. The work aims to assess how the Commission ensures the freedom of movement of workers, as well as the effectiveness of EU action on labour mobility. It draws on visits to the five Member States with either the largest inflows of non-national workers or the largest outflows to other countries, namely Germany, Luxembourg, Poland, Romania and the United Kingdom.

European Foundation for the Improvement of Living and Working Conditions (Eurofound)

In the course of April, Eurofound has tackled two of the most discussed topics in today's public debate. In a report issued at the beginning of the month, indeed, it has examined the impact of new technologies on production processes and work, while in a further study it has delved into the analysis of minimum wages across Europe. In addition, the fourth European Quality of Life Survey microdata were made available, which provide unique insight into the quality of life of European citizens. More

European Training Foundation (ETF)

ETF organized a 3-day workshop on the standards for the New Ukrainian School from 24 to 27 April in Kyiv (Ukraine). The event aimed at supporting the Ukrainian Ministry of Education and Science in designing new education standards for Ukrainian schools. Particular attention has been devoted to the integration of entrepreneurship and digital key competencies, on the basis of the 'European Entrepreneurship Competence Framework' and of the 'European Digital Competence Framework'.
