

Committee on Transport and Tourism

Public Hearing

“Digitalisation in Transport”

Draft programme

Brussels, Wednesday 20 June 2018

10h15 - 11h45

Room Jan 4Q1

10h15 Opening by Karima DELLI, Chair of the TRAN Committee

PART 1

10h15 - 10h30 How is digitalisation shaping the future of transport?

- ET TSA: Christoph Klenner, Secretary General of the European Technology & Travel Service Association
- SESAR Joint Undertaking: David Batchelor, “U-space: towards a new era in smart air mobility”
- H.A.N.D: Gael Musquet, founder of “Hackers against natural disasters”, expert on connected vehicles and open source (tbc)

10h30 - 10h50 Questions and answers

Presentations:

10h50 - 11h00 EU Startup Prize: first round of winners

- Cargonexx: (StartUp winner prize) Germany - Platform for connecting utility vehicle owners with professionals with freight need (tbc)
- Cocolis: (StartUp winner prize) France - Collaborative platform dedicated to the transport of parcels by private individuals (tbc)

PART 2

11h00 - 11h15 How can digitalisation fuel sustainable mobility?

- ECSA: Martin Dorsman, Secretary General, European Community Shipowners' Association
- Port of Strasbourg: Jean-Louis Jérôme, General Director, "RPIS - managing the future of Rhine Ports Barge Traffic"
- Eurostar: Roberto Abbondio, Managing Director, New Digital Business

11h15 - 11h35 Questions and answers

Presentations:

11h35 - 11h40 EU Startup Prize: second round of winners

- Whim: by Maas global (StartUp winner price) Finland - Combines all journeys with public transport, taxi, car, bikes and more in one service. Pay as you go or enjoy a monthly plan (tbc)
- Klaxit: (StartUp winner price) France - Carpooling offer for all transport pass holders in Paris, Lyon, Toulouse, Bordeaux, Lille, Nantes, Rennes, Grenoble and Orléans (tbc)

11h40 Concluding remarks by the Chair, Karima DELLI

11h45 End of programme