

For the Subcommittee on Human Rights (DROI), in association with the Committee on Legal Affairs (JURI) and the Committee on Civil Liberties, Justice and Home Affairs (LIBE)

WORKSHOP

Universal jurisdiction and international crimes: Constraints and best practices

Thursday, 28 June 2018, 09.00-11.00
Interpretation: EN, ES, FR, IT (requested)
Brussels Paul-Henri Spaak building, room 4B001

DRAFT PROGRAMME

- 09.00 Introductory remarks
- Pier Antonio Panzeri, MEP, Chair of the Subcommittee on Human Rights
 - Heidi Hautala, MEP, Committee on Legal Affairs
 - NN, Committee on Civil Liberties, Justice and Home Affairs
- 09.10 Academic expert presentations
- Professor Cedric Ryngaert, Professor of Public International Law, University of Utrecht: International trends and the EU's approach to promoting universal jurisdiction through its external relations
 - Professor Florian Jeßberger, Professor of Criminal Law, University of Hamburg: Towards 'complementary preparedness': trends and best practices in universal criminal jurisdiction in Europe
- 09.30 Contributions of other stakeholders
- 10.00 Debate
- 10.50 Concluding remarks by the Chairs
- 11.00 End