

Martin Pigeon

French

Born 1979

2008-2017: Researcher and campaigner with Corporate Europe Observatory, Brussels.

- 2012-...: Agribusiness, Food, Research policies

- 2008-2012: Water policies

2011-2013: representing Le Début des Haricots on the Board of Inter Environnement Bruxelles, a federation of 80 neighbourhoods associations working to improve the quality of life in Brussels.

2009-2014: volunteer with and Board member of Le Début des Haricots asbl, an association protecting public and environmental health through promoting and developing sustainable agriculture.

Publications

Books

Remunicipalisation - Putting water back into public hands (2012) – Edited by M. Pigeon, D. McDonald, O. Hoedeman and S. Kishimoto

Translations

La montée des eaux (C. Mann), editions ALLIA, Paris, 2009

Education

2003: DESS CAAE-MBA (Master's Degree in Business Administration), Institut d'Administration des Entreprises, Paris I Panthéon-Sorbonne University.

2001: Diploma of the Institute of Politics (Sciences-po) – Rennes, France – Politics and Society section

