ARTICLES

COMP 1 - Title

Covers amendments 1 (rapporteur), 39 (Morgano), 40 (Trüpel, Franz, Gimenez Barbat)

Regulation of the European Parliament and of the Council establishing the Europe for Citizens, Rights and Values programme

COMP 2 - Article 2 – Paragraph 1

Covers amendments 118 (Costa), 119 (Guillaume), 120 (Morgano), 121 (Maltese, Michels), 122 (Ward), 123 (Fisas Ayxeyla, Malinov, Wentz, Ward, Benifei, Gardiazabal, Maydell), 124 (Sojdrova),

1. The general objective of the Programme is to protect and promote European citizenship, and the rule of law, as well as the rights, principles and values enshrined in the EU Treaties, on the basis of which the Union was founded. This should be achieved notably by supporting key stakeholders such as associations of citizens, think tanks, research, cultural and academic institutions and civil society organisations at local, regional, national and transnational levels, in order to remind everyone of the importance of those values and principles, and thereby to sustain open, democratic and inclusive societies.

COMP 3 – Article 2 – Paragraph 2 – Point b

Covers amendments 10 (rapporteur), 125 (Michels), 126 (Adinolfi), 127 (Costa),

- (b) to raise citizens'- and in particular young people's - awareness of the importance of the EU through activities aimed at keeping alive remembrance of the historic events that led to its creation, and to promote democracy, freedom of expression, pluralism, civic engagement as well as meetings of citizens and their active participation in the democratic life of the Union (Active Citizenship strand)

COMP 4 – Article 3 – Paragraph 1 – Point b

Covers amendments 12 (rapporteur), 129 (Trüpel, Franz, Gimenez Barbat),

- (b) protecting and promoting the rights of the child, the rights of people with disabilities, Union citizenship rights, including the right to launch a European Citizenship Initiative, and the right to the protection of personal data.

COMP 5 – Article 4 – Paragraph 1 – Point a

Covers amendments 132 (Costa), 133 (Guillaume), 135 (Maltese, Michels), 136 (Morgano), 137 (Gimenez Barbat, Trüpel, Toom), 138 (Benifei, Ward, Gardiazabal, Maydell), 139 (Adinolfi), 140 (Malinov, Gimenez Barbat), 141 (Ward)

- (a) supporting projects put forward by citizens, with a particular focus on young people, aimed at encouraging people not only to remember the events that preceded the establishment of the EU, which build the core of its historical memory, but also to learn more about their shared history, culture and values, and to get a sense of the wealth of their common cultural heritage and of the cultural and linguistic diversity, which constitute the foundation for a common future; fostering citizens' understanding of the Union, its origins, raison d'être and achievements, and increasing their awareness of its present and future challenges, and of the importance of mutual understanding and tolerance, which are at the very heart of the European project;

COMP 6 – Article 4 – Paragraph 1 – Point b

Covers amendments 16 (rapporteur), 143 (Costa), 144 (Adinolfi), 146 (Malinov), 147 (Michels), 148 (Ward) 149 (Gimenez Barbat, Toom)

- (b) promoting public dialogue through town twinning, meetings of citizens, in particular young people, and through cooperation between municipalities, local communities and civil society organisations of different countries, so as to afford them direct practical experience of the wealth of cultural diversity and heritage in the EU, and to increase citizens' engagement in society;

COMP 7 – Article 4 – Paragraph 1 – Point b (a)

Covers amendments 143 (Costa), 148 (Ward), 150 (Adinolfi), 151 (Costa), 152 (Gimenez Barbat, Trüpel, Toom)

- (ba) encouraging and enhancing civic participation in the democratic life of the Union on local, national and transnational levels; allowing citizens and associations to promote intercultural dialogue and conduct proper public debates about all areas of the Union action, thereby contributing to shaping EU's political agenda ; supporting organised joint initiatives, in the form of both citizens' associations and networks of legal entities, to implement more effectively the objectives set out in the previous paragraphs;

COMP 8 – Article 6 – Paragraph 2 – Point b

Covers amendments 19 (rapporteur), 156 (Michels), 157 (Gimenez Barbat, Trüpel, Malinov, Toom)

- (b) EUR [500 000 000] or at least 40% of the financial envelope of the Programme referred to in Article 6(1) to achieve the specific objectives referred to in Article 2(2)(b); approximately 15% of the total budget for this objective shall be allocated to remembrance activities, 65% to democratic participation, 10% to promotional activities and 10% to administration (indicative breakdown);
The Commission shall not depart from the allocated percentages of the financial envelope by more than 5 percentage points for each group of specific objectives. Should it prove necessary to exceed that limit, the Commission shall be empowered to adopt delegated acts in accordance with Article XX to modify each of the figures by more than 5 and up to 10 percentage points.

COMP 9 – Article 13 - paragraph 2

Covers amendments 173 (Guillaume), 174 (Ward), 175 (Trüpel, Franz, Gimenez Barbat

2. The Commission is empowered to adopt delegated acts in accordance with Article 16 to supplement this Regulation by establishing the appropriate work programmes and, as required, the multiannual priorities on which the work programmes are based. In drawing up its work programmes, the Commission shall consult organisations representing civil society and organisations representing local and regional authorities.

COMP 10 – Article 14 – paragraph 3

Covers amendments 176 (Maltese), 177 (Sojdrova), 178 (Trüpel, Franz, Gimenez Barbat)

3. The performance reporting system shall ensure that data for monitoring programme implementation and results, are conceived and collected efficiently, effectively, and in a timely manner, that the allocation of funds for specific projects is reflected accurately and that the synergies created between funding programmes are properly evidenced. Participation of the entities involved in the Programme shall be ensured to that end. Proportionate reporting and least burdensome requirements shall be imposed on recipients of Union funds and Member States.

COMP 11 – Article 18 a (new)

Covers amendments 27 (rapporteur) and 186 (Trüpel, Franz, Gimenez Barbat)

18 a (new) National Contact Points

Each Member State shall set up an independent and qualified national Contact Point with staff tasked with providing the potential beneficiaries of the Programme (citizens, organisations and regional authorities), with guidance, practical information and assistance regarding all aspects of the Programme, including in relation to the application procedure and proposal writing, distribution of documentation, partner search, training and other formalities, thereby ensuring that the Programme is implemented in a uniform way. The National Contact Points shall have no responsibility for project evaluation, which shall be carried out by the Commission.

COMP 12 - Annexe I – Paragraph 1 - point a

Covers amendments 29 (rapporteur), 142 (Costa), 189 (Maltese, Michels), 190 (Malinov), 191 (Trüpel, Franz, Gimenez Barbat), 192 (Costa), 193 (McClarkin, Benifei, Ward, Gardiazabal, Maydell), 194 (Costa), 195 (Gimenez Barbat, Toom)

- (a) raising awareness among citizens, particularly young people and people belonging to disadvantaged and underrepresented groups of society, of the common values, rights and principles on which the EU is founded, of their rights and responsibilities as European citizens, as well as of the ways to protect and exercise these rights, no matter where they live; promoting projects designed to improve the knowledge of the policies and rights in the areas covered by the Programme objectives; encouraging formal and informal education for European citizenship.

COMP 13 – Annex I – Paragraph 1 – point b

Covers amendments 30 (rapporteur), 196 (Adinolfi), 197 (Morgano)

- (b) mutual learning through exchange and highlighting of good practices among stakeholders (including associations, civil society organisations, local government bodies and citizens) with a view to improve knowledge, mutual understanding, civic and democratic engagement and to further valorise the results of the supported activities;

COMP 14 - Annex I – Paragraph 1 – point f

Covers amendments 33, 34, 35 (rapporteur), 206 (Gimenez Barbat, Trüpel, Toom), 207 (Adinolfi), 209 (Benifei, Ward, Eider, Gardiazabal, Maydell)

- (f) strengthening citizen's - especially of young people - awareness, of European culture, cultural heritage history and remembrance, but also of the future challenges of the EU and reinforcing their sense of belonging to the Union, particularly through:
 - i (new) initiatives to reflect on the causes of totalitarian regimes in Europe's modern history and to commemorate the victims of their crimes;*
 - ii (new) activities concerning other defining moments and reference points in recent European history;*

COMP 15 - Annex I – Paragraph 1 – point g

Covers amendments 36 (rapporteur), 210 (Adinolfi), 211 (Trüpel, Franz, Gimenez Barbat)

- (g) bringing together citizens of different nationalities and cultures by giving them the opportunity to participate in meetings[, town-twinning activities, small scale and civil society projects, thus creating the conditions for a stronger bottom-up approach, aimed at shaping EU's political agenda;

COMP 16 - Annex I – Paragraph 1 – point h

COMP 17 - Annex II – Paragraph 1 – Introductory part

Covers amendments 38 (rapporteur), 225 (Trüpel, Franz, Gimenez Barbat), 226 (Benifei, Ward),

The Programme will be monitored on the basis of a set of indicators intended to measure the extent to which the general and specific objectives of the Programme have been achieved and with a view to minimising administrative burdens and costs. Where possible, indicators are to be broken down by age, sex and any other collectable data (ethnicity, disability, gender identity...). To that end, data will be collected as regards the following set of key indicators:

Line 3 a (new)

Geographical distribution of projects

Line 3 b (new)

Number of transnational networks and initiatives focusing on European remembrance, heritage and civil dialogue as a result of programme intervention.

RECITALS

COMP 18 - Recital 2

Covers amendments 2 (rapporteur), 47 (Morgano), 48 (Adinolfi), 49 (Maltese, Michels), 50 (Trüpel, Franz, Gimenez Barbat)

- (2) Those rights and values must continue to be promoted, enforced and shared among the citizens and peoples and be at the heart of the EU project. Therefore, a new Justice, Rights and Values Fund, comprising the Citizenship, Rights and Values and the Justice programmes should be created in the EU budget. At a time where European societies are confronted with many challenges, such as extremism, radicalism and divisions, and the rule of law is ever more clearly in retreat in certain countries, it is more important than ever to promote, strengthen and defend justice, rights and EU values, such as human rights, including the rights of the persons belonging to minorities, children and youth rights, pluralism, tolerance, respect for human dignity, freedom, democracy, equality, solidarity and the rule of law. The Europe for Citizens, Rights and Values Programme will bring together the 2014-2020 Programme Rights, Equality and Citizenship established by Regulation (EU) No 1381/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council and the Europe for Citizens programme established by Council Regulation (EU) No 390/2014, (hereafter 'the predecessor Programmes').

COMP 19 - Recital 3

Covers amendments 3 (rapporteur), 51 (Morgano), 53 (Adinolfi), 54 (Trüpel, Franz, Gimenez Barbat), 55 (Costa), 56 (Maltese, Michels)

- (3) The Justice, Rights and Values Fund and its two funding programmes will focus primarily on people and entities which contribute to the embodiment of our common principles values and rights and demonstrate the wealth of our diversity. The ultimate objective is to sustain rights-based, equal, fair, tolerant, inclusive, plural and democratic societies. The activities financed should aim at sustaining and strengthening an active civil society and encouraging democratic, civic, cultural and social participation based on our common values, history, memory, cultural heritage and roots. Article 11 of the Treaty of the European Union further specifies that the institutions shall maintain an open, transparent and regular dialogue with civil society and shall, by appropriate means, give citizens and representative associations the opportunity to make known and publicly exchange their views in all areas of Union action.

COMP 20 - Recital 4

Covers amendments 4 (rapporteur), 57 (Maltese, Michels), 59 (Costa), 60 (Morgano),

- (4) The Europe for Citizens, Rights and Values programme (the 'Programme') should allow synergies to be developed to tackle the challenges that are common to the promotion and protection of values, active citizenship and education for European citizenship and to reach a critical dimension to have concrete results in the field. That should be achieved by building on the positive experience of the predecessor Programmes that are now incorporated in the new Programme. This will enable to fully exploit the potential of synergies, to more effectively support the policy areas covered and to increase their potential to reach people. To be effective, the Programme should take into account the specific nature of the different policies, their different target groups and their particular needs, with a special focus on the multilingual character of the Union and the need to include young people, underrepresented and disadvantaged groups, such as people with special needs, migrants, refugees and asylum seekers through tailor-made approaches.

COMP 21 - Recital 5

Covers amendments 63 (Maltese, Michels), 64 (Morgano), 65 (Adinolfi), 66 Sojdrova, 67 (Costa), 68 (Guillaume), 69 (Trüpel, Franz, Gimenez Barbat),

- (5) In order to bring the European Union closer to its citizens, to foster democratic participation and to empower citizens to make use of their rights linked to the European citizenship, a variety of actions and coordinated efforts, aiming at a balanced geographical distribution, are necessary. Bringing together citizens in town-twinning projects or networks of towns and supporting civil society organisations at the local, regional, national and transnational level in the areas covered by the programme will contribute to increase citizens' engagement in society and ultimately their active involvement in the democratic life of the Union as well as in the shaping of EU's political agenda. At the same time supporting activities promoting mutual understanding, intercultural dialogue, cultural, and linguistic diversity, reconciliation, social inclusion and respect for others, fosters a sense of belonging to the Union and a common citizenship under a European identity, based on a shared understanding of European values, culture, history and heritage. The promotion of a greater sense of belonging to the Union and of Union values is particularly important amongst citizens of the EU outermost regions due to their remoteness and distance from continental Europe.

COMP 22 - Recital 6

Covers amendments 5 (rapporteur), 71 (Maltese, Michels), 73 (Costa), 74 (Morgano), 75 (Trüpel, Franz, Gimenez Barbat), 76 (Adinolfi),

- (6) Remembrance activities and critical and creative thinking on Europe's historical memory are necessary to make citizens, in particular young people, aware of their common history, as the foundation for a common future. The relevance of historical, social, cultural and intercultural aspects, tolerance and dialogue should also be taken into account in order to promote a common ground based on shared values, solidarity, diversity and peace, as well as the links between remembrance and the creation of a European identity and sense of belonging together.

COMP 23 - Recital 7

Covers amendments 79 (Adinolfi), 80 (Sojdrova), 81 (Costa), 82 (Trüpel, Franz, Gimenez Barbat)

- (7) Citizens should also be more aware of their rights deriving from citizenship of the Union, and should feel at ease about living, travelling, studying, working, voting, accessing to public services, taking part in cultural exchanges and volunteering in another Member State. They should feel able to participate in the EU decision-making process and be aware that they have an impact on it and that they can place their trust in equal access to, full enforceability and protection of their rights without any discrimination, no matter where in the Union they happen to be. Civil society needs to be supported at all levels for the promotion, safeguarding and raising awareness of EU common values under Article 2 TEU with the aim of ensuring effective enjoyment of rights under Union law.

COMP 24 - Recital 12

Covers amendments 90 (Ward), 91 (Maltese, Michels)

- (12) Attitudinal and environmental barriers as well as lack of accessibility hinder the full and effective participation of persons with disabilities in society, on an equal basis with others. Persons with disabilities are faced with barriers when it comes to, among other things, accessing the labour market, benefitting from an inclusive and quality education, avoiding poverty and social exclusion, enjoying access to culture, cultural initiatives and media, and using their political rights. As a party to the United Nations Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities (the UNCRPD), the Union and all its Member States have committed to promote, protect and ensure the full and equal enjoyment of all human rights and fundamental freedoms by all persons with disabilities. The provisions of the UNCRPD have become an integral part of the Union legal order.

COMP 25 - Recital 14

Covers amendments 94 (Trüpel, Franz, Gimenez Barbat), 95 (Guillaume), 96 (Adinolfi)

- (14) Article 24 TFEU obliges the European Parliament and the Council to adopt provisions for the procedures and conditions required for a citizen's initiative within the meaning of Article 11 of the Treaty on European Union. This has been done by adopting Regulation [(EU) No 211/2011 of the European Parliament and of the Council¹⁴]. The Programme should encourage and promote the exercise of their right to launch and join the European citizens' initiatives by supporting, in its "equality and rights" strand, the financing of technical and organisational support to implement Regulation [(EU) No 211/2011],

COMP 26 - Recital 21

Covers amendments 103 (Maltese, Michels), 104 (Trüpel, Franz, Gimenez Barbat), 105 (Costa)

- (21) In order to ensure efficient allocation of funds from the general budget of the Union, it is necessary to ensure the European added value of all actions carried out and their complementarity to Member States' actions. Consistency, complementarity and transparent and clearly defined synergies should be sought with funding programmes supporting policy areas with close links to each other, in particular within the Justice, Rights and Values Fund — and thus with the Justice Programme — as well as with the Creative Europe programme, the European Solidarity Corps, and Erasmus+ to realise the potential of cultural crossovers in the fields of culture, audio-visual, media, arts, formal, non-formal and informal education and creativity. It is necessary to create synergies with other European funding programmes, in particular in the fields of employment, internal market, enterprise, youth, volunteering, vocational training, health, citizenship, justice, social inclusion, - especially migrants and most disadvantaged -, migration, security, research, innovation, technology, industry, cohesion, climate, tourism, sport, external relations, enlargement, international cooperation, trade and development.

COMP 27 - Recital 24

Covers amendments 108 (Gimenez Barbat, Toom, Trüpel), 109 (Trüpel, Franz)

- (24) The types of financing and the methods of implementation under this Regulation should be chosen on the basis of their ability to achieve the a positive success target rate, especially for action grants and projects and to deliver results in line with the specific objectives of the actions, taking into account, in particular, the costs of controls, the administrative burden, the size and the capacity of relevant stakeholders and targeted beneficiaries, and the expected risk of non-compliance. This should include consideration of the use of lump sums, flat rates and unit costs, and of further parameters enabling persons with special needs to be accommodated more effectively, as well as financing not linked to costs as referred to in Article 125(1) of the Financial Regulation. Co-funding requirements should be accepted in kind and may be waived in cases of limited complementary funding. In accordance with the Financial Regulation, Regulation (EU, Euratom) No 883/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council²⁰ Council Regulation (Euratom, EC) No 2988/95²¹ Council Regulation (Euratom, EC) No 2185/96²² and Council Regulation (EU) 2017/1939²³ the financial interests of the Union are to be protected through proportionate measures, including the prevention, detection, correction and investigation of irregularities and fraud, the recovery of funds lost, wrongly paid or incorrectly used and, where appropriate, the imposition of administrative sanctions. In particular, in accordance with Regulation (EU, Euratom) No 883/2013 and Regulation (Euratom, EC) No 2185/96 the European Anti-Fraud Office (OLAF) may carry out administrative investigations, including on-the-spot checks and inspections, with a view to establishing whether there has been fraud, corruption or any other illegal activity affecting the financial interests of the Union. In accordance with Regulation (EU) 2017/1939, the European Public Prosecutor's Office (EPPO) may investigate and prosecute fraud and other criminal offences affecting the financial interests of the Union as provided for in Directive (EU) 2017/1371 of the European Parliament and of the Council²⁴. In accordance with the Financial Regulation, any person or entity receiving Union funds is to fully cooperate in the protection of the Union's financial interests, to grant the necessary rights and access to the Commission, OLAF, the EPPO and the European Court of Auditors (ECA) and to ensure that any third parties involved in the implementation of Union funds grant equivalent rights.
