

András Ujlaky

Date of birth: 15th January 1949

Nationality: Hungarian / British

Education:

1967–71 Karl Marx University of Economics, Budapest

1963–67 II. Rákoczi Ferenc Gimnázium (Grammar School), Budapest

Employment:

2009 – to date Kiútprogram ZRT. Microfinance Initiative

Participated in planning and designing the program involving income generating microfinance for the poor, mainly Roma, provided interim management to start operations, member of the Board of Directors.

2004– to date Chance for Children Foundation, Budapest

Founded organisation with mission to improve school success for Roma children. CFCF sues segregating Education Authorities at the High Court and is using court cases to raise awareness of the Roma and general public on the effects of ethnic discrimination.

2003–04 Ministry for Education of Hungary, Budapest

Administering EU funding to programmes for schools teaching Roma children. Managed and supervised all aspects of two pre-accession PHARE programs aimed at schools teaching mainly Roma children. Worked closely with schools and Education Authorities all over the country, with the Ministerial Commissioner, responsible for quality education for Roma children and several Roma communities

2001–03 Freelance activities with various Roma rights groups.

1983–2000 Hungarian International Bank Ltd., London

Main Board Director HIBTRADE Ltd., London, CEO

HIB and its subsidiary, Hibtrade were trade finance organisations specializing in structures using non-convertible currencies for COMECON and emerging market countries. As chief executive I travelled widely in Europe, the Soviet Union, Latin America, Africa and South-East Asia to set up and operate these structures

1981–83 National Bank of Hungary, Budapest

1971–81 MKB Bank Ltd., Budapest

1.

2. Languages:

Fluent in English, German and Hungarian