

THOMAS TRIOMPHE

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT, HEAD OF SANOFI PASTEUR

Thomas Triomphe was appointed Executive Vice President of Sanofi Pasteur in June 2020.

He was previously Head of Franchise & Product Strategy for Sanofi Pasteur since January 2018.

Thomas joined Sanofi Pasteur in 2004 and since then advanced within the company in several roles of increasing responsibility in sales and marketing, at the country, regional and global levels.

From 2015 to 2018, he was Head of the Asia Pacific Region, based in Singapore. Before that, he served as Head of Sanofi Pasteur Japan from 2012 to 2015. In 2010, he became Associate Vice President, Head of the Influenza-Pneumo Franchise after three years as Director for the same franchise, based in the US.

Earlier in his career, Thomas worked in McKinsey & Company Associate in strategic consulting and held several positions within Capital One, a large US bank in both the US & France.

A French citizen, he earned his MSc in Industrial Engineering from “Ponts et Chaussées” and he also holds an MBA from INSEAD.