

Magdalena R. de Azero, Executive Director Vaccines Europe, has more than 20 years professional experience working on policies for the pharmaceutical and vaccine industries. She is responsible for developing and managing Vaccines Europe projects and is in charge of driving the vaccine industry EU policy priorities. A trained journalist that holds an MA in EU Affairs and also worked as a journalist in Spain prior to focusing in the EU pharmaceutical sector.