

Biography for Trine Vig Tamstorf

I work as chief policy advisor for animal health and animal welfare at the Danish Agriculture and Food Council.

I have a background in agricultural economics and have been working on technical and political aspects regarding animal health and animal welfare in EU and Denmark since 2003.

I have participated in the development of the Danish Governmental Label “Better Welfare” for pig meat and for dairy products and beef. I have also been responsible for the development and implementation of the Danish quality assurance scheme for Danish pig production from 2007-2012.

I am member of the Animal Health and Welfare Working Group of Copa/Cocega, member of the livestock group for WFO and a member of the EU Commissions Subgroup of Animal Welfare Labelling.
