Public Hearing: “The New European Bauhaus Initiative”

The New European Bauhaus:
What questions should we really be asking ourselves?

Dr. Cathryn Klasto, Lecturer at HDK-Valand, University of Gothenburg.

How inclusive and accessible is The New European Bauhaus Initiative?

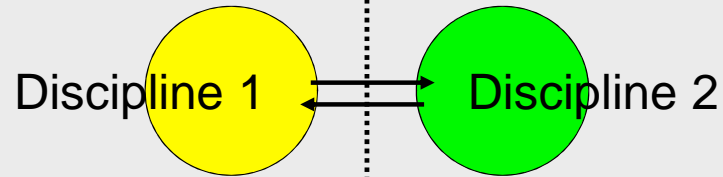

need to move away from the desire to emulate a legacy which is not representative of the diversity Europe contains need to assess how the initiative is being communicated to people - close monitoring of whose voices are present and whose are not need to ensure transparent decision making processes and communicatory systems

Is an interdisciplinary/multidisciplinary approach what we should be aiming for?
