* The secretariat's attention was first drawn to a voting card mix-up in mid-December 2022. On 11 January 2023 Evelyn Regner (S&D) confirmed to the secretariat that she personally voted during the ECON Committee voting session on 17 November 2022. However, for accidental and unintentional reasons she did so using the voting card of Petar Vitanov (S&D). Both Members were unaware of this mix-up at this point. Mrs. Regner subsequently became aware of the issue during a plenary debate on 22 November, at which point the mix-up of voting cards was corrected. Mrs. Regner subsequently traced back potential technical voting errors which arose as a result of this mix-up, including that of the above-mentioned ECON vote.
