

Brussels, 30 January 2023

Coordinators' meeting of 25 January 2023
Coordinators' decisions and recommendations

1. Update on upcoming INIs

Decision:

- On the proposed INI on extractive industries, modify the title and give reassurances to the three committees concerned on the DEVE focus and full respect of their competences.
- Fine tune the title of the next DEVE INI on education and training (EPP) in order to avoid overlap with the ongoing DEVE INI on humanitarian assistance. Once the title is agreed, launch the authorisation process as soon as possible.
- The hors quota joint ENVI-DEVE INI on SDGs is attributed to S&D for two points. The joint letter requesting authorisation to travel to the July HLPF meeting should also be prepared.

2. Appointment of rapporteurs for opinion

i) CULT implementation report on the European Solidarity Corps

Decision: Opinion attributed to ECR for 1 point.

ii) Budget 2024

Decision: Package of opinions attributed to S&D for 1 point in total.

3. Revision of Annex VI of the Rules of Procedures

Decision: The version proposed by the Chair is approved provided that a number of additional elements are integrated. Launch a written procedure to finalise the exercise and send the contribution to the CCC by the deadline of 10 February.

4. DEVE's contributions to the 2024 work programme of the Court of Auditors

Decision: Given the high number of proposals made at the meeting, further analyse them and launch a written procedure to agree on a limited number of suggestions to be sent to the CCC by the deadline of 22 February.

5. The cost of non-Europe

Decision: Endorse the proposal to launch a cost of non-Europe study on development policy on the basis of the concept note prepared by DG EPRS.

Due to lack of time, all other agenda items on the use of expertise and selection of missions/ hearings and meetings with national parliaments for the second half of 2023 are postponed to next coordinators' meeting.
