

Curriculum Vitae Dr Daniel Fehling, LL.M. (King's College London)

March 2023

Nationality	German Born on 7 April 1976 in Bonn
Education and Training	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• 2004-2006: Law Clerk, Second State Examination, Hamburg• 2003-2005: Doctoral Thesis, LMU-University of Munich, Doctorate in Law (Dr. iur.)• 2001-2002: Law Studies, King's College London, Master of Laws (LL.M.)• 1996-2001: Law Studies, University of Bonn and LMU-University of Munich, First State Examination in Law• 1995: Graduated from High School, Bonn
Professional experience	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Since 2019: Head of Division IV B 1 (International Tax Policy – Direct Taxation) in Germany's Federal Ministry of Finance, Berlin Daniel is currently dealing with issues concerning the so-called two-pillar solution (international reform of business taxation) and with various EU tax files• 2009-2019: Policy officer, Germany's Federal Ministry of Finance, Berlin (dealing with taxation of permanent establishments, international tax policy, and press affairs)• 2006-2009: Lawyer, international law firm, Munich