Amendment 9 should now read as follows:

Amendment 9

Article 1, paragraph 1, introductory part

Any European political party or union of such parties may register a statute of a European political party (hereinafter referred to as 'statute') subject to the following conditions:

Any European political party or long-term European union of such parties may register a statute of a European political party (hereinafter referred to as 'statute') subject to the following conditions:

Justification

Only unions of a transnational character should be covered by the European statute on political parties. Alliances between parties must not be created solely with the purpose of attracting Community funds; rather they must pursue long-term policies.
