Paragraph 45

45. Underlines previous European Parliament resolutions, in particular its resolution dated 13 October 2005 on Iran\textsuperscript{1}, as well as its previous resolutions on Iran dated 28 October 2004\textsuperscript{2} and 13 January 2005\textsuperscript{3};

\textsuperscript{1} Texts Adopted, P6_TA(2005)0382.
\textsuperscript{2} OJ C 174 E, 14.7.2005, p. 190.
\textsuperscript{3} OJ C 247 E, 6.10.2005, p. 159.
Paragraph 46

46. Considering the mistrust aroused by Iranian activities over a sustained period of more than 17 years, as stated in the resolution adopted on 24 September 2005 by the IAEA, calls on Iran to take all necessary steps to restore the international community’s confidence and trusts that Iran can responsibly and transparently develop a civilian nuclear energy programme by:

- meeting in full its commitments, notwithstanding its rights, under the NPT,
- fully cooperating with the IAEA,
- continuing to cooperate with IAEA inspectors as it has done since 2003,
- ratifying, without delay, the IAEA Additional Protocol,
- returning to its commitments under the Paris Agreement,
- re-establishing full and sustained suspension of all aspects of its uranium enrichment-related activities, including tests or production at the uranium conversion facility at Isfahan,
- and subject to the above, a full return to negotiations with the EU aimed at the successful conclusion of a Trade and Cooperation Agreement;
