(a) The Commission should consider, in particular, whether Member States are facing ‘exceptional circumstances’, a term used to refer to an unusual event which is outside the control of the Member States concerned and has a major impact on the financial position of the general government, or to periods of severe economic downturn as defined in the revised Stability and Growth Pact;

(b) Where there are any such exceptional circumstances, the recommendations of the Commission should take them into account and, instead of calling for budgetary cuts which may only worsen

the existing economic situation, focus more on achieving a sustainable budget in the medium to long term;
