Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 55 a (new)

55a. Regrets that the claim that the EU’s international agreements are subject to compliance with human rights is a matter of propaganda, since there is no effective monitoring of their application; calls for reports to be submitted to the relevant Parliament committee on the human rights aspects of the agreements; rejects, meanwhile, the imposition of sanctions by the EU on third countries with the aim of protecting its geopolitical and economic interests independently of the humanitarian situation;

Paragraph 120 a (new)

Motion for a resolution
Amendment

120a. Emphatically rejects any military intervention carried out under the pretext of providing assistance in humanitarian crises or assuming a responsibility to protect; emphasises that military intervention in various countries in recent years has only served to exacerbate the humanitarian crises and serious human rights problems in those countries;
