<tr>
<td>54. Calls on the Commission to consider a revision of the Blue Card Directive in order to ensure its wider flexibility for those high-skilled beneficiaries of international protection who would potentially be entitled, as third-country nationals, to access the Blue Card system, by taking into account the extraordinary conditions with which refugees and asylum seekers are faced, as well as the needs of the EU labour market, in particular by looking at the directive’s scope and rules as regards intra-EU mobility;</td>
<td>54. Takes note of the Commission proposal for a directive on the conditions of entry and residence of third-country nationals for the purposes of highly skilled employment; welcomes, in particular, the proposed possibility for highly skilled beneficiaries of international protection to apply for a Blue Card under the same conditions as other third-country nationals, while also retaining all the rights they enjoy as beneficiaries of international protection under the Qualification Directive;</td>
