Proposal for a directiveArticle 1 – paragraph 1 – point 3

Directive 91/477/EEC

Article 4 - paragraph 2 - paragraph 1

Text proposed by the CommissionAmendment

For the purposes of identifying and tracing each assembled firearm, Member States shall, at the time of manufacture of each firearm or at the time of import to the Union, require a unique marking including the name of the manufacturer, the country or place of manufacture, the serial number and the year of manufacture, if not already part of the serial number. This shall be without prejudice to the affixing of the manufacturer's trademark.

For the purposes of identifying and tracing each assembled firearm, Member States shall, at the time of manufacture of each firearm or at the time of import to the Union of a firearm manufactured after the entry into force of this Directive, require a unique marking including the name of the manufacturer, the country or place of manufacture, the serial number and the year of manufacture, if not already part of the serial number. This shall be without prejudice to the affixing of the manufacturer's trademark. These rules with regard to markings are applicable to firearms manufactured after the date that this directive comes into force.
