Paragraph 15 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

15a. Stresses that in Greece, the key role that small and regional airports play as drivers of sustainable growth for the local economy and society is threatened by the concession agreement regarding 14 profitable regional airports that exists between Greece and the company Fraport AG-Slntel Ltd, the ratification of which was a prerequisite of the Third Economic Adjustment Programme; underlines that the terms of this concession agreement, which is the result of political pressure exerted on a Member State, are against the public interest and the interests of employees, do not promote connectivity, territorial cohesion, social inclusion or the interests of island regions, and are not compliant with EU rules on state aid and competition law; calls, therefore, for its cancellation;
