Discharge 2017: EU general budget - European Parliament
2018/2167(DEC)

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 133 b (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

133 b. Deplores the breakdown of the inter-institutional negotiations on the reform of the EU Transparency Register and regrets that it is the European Parliament that is being blamed for the stalling of the negotiations given its refusal to introduce the obligation on rapporteurs, shadow rapporteurs and committee chairs to publish information about their meetings with lobbyists; calls for a reform of the Staff Regulations so that political group staff are covered by lobbying transparency obligations; and reiterates its call on the bureau of the Parliament to enable a space on the European Parliament website for Members to publish their schedules meetings with lobbyists should they chose to do so;

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 133 b (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

133 b. Highlights that transparency and freedom of information are enshrined in the Charter of Fundamental Rights, which establishes the right to access documents held by the European institutions, and calls for an external review of the Parliament's transparency levels, using key open government indicators, with a view to increasing the already high standards of transparency; recalls that the reform of Regulation (EC) No 1049/2001 is long overdue; and calls on the European Parliament administration to regularly publish – in an open source, machine-readable format – the results of committee and plenary votes;

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 133 d (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

133 d. Calls for a reform of the Parliament's ethics Advisory Committee so that it is empowered to initiate investigations and proactively check the declarations of interest of Members; proposes that it be composed of independent experts and requests an assessment of the costs involved in setting up an independent office for ethics and integrity;
