Special Committee on financial crimes, tax evasion and tax avoidance

Rapporteur: Jeppe Kofod, Luděk Niedermayer
A8-0170/2019

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 116 should read:

116. Is concerned by the magnitude of tax unpaid for all Member States over long periods\(^1\); recalls that the aim of the recovery of unlawful aid is to restore the position to the status quo, and that calculating the exact amount of aid to be repaid is part of the implementation obligation incumbent on the national authorities; calls on the Commission to assess and establish viable countermeasures, including fines, to help prevent Member States from offering selective favourable tax treatment which constitutes State aid that is non-compliant with EU rules;

Paragraph 410 should read:

410. Takes the view that the work of the TAXE, TAX2, PANA and TAX3 committees should be continued, in the forthcoming parliamentary term, in a permanent structure within Parliament such as a subcommittee to the Committee on Economic and Monetary Affairs (ECON) allowing for cross-committee participation;

\(^1\) As in the case of decision of 30 August 2016 (SA.38373) on State aid implemented by Ireland to Apple. The tax rulings in question were issued by Ireland on 29 January 1991 and 23 May 2007.
