Report

Peter Jahr

Common agricultural policy - support for strategic plans to be drawn up by Member States and financed by the EAGF and by the EAFRD (COM(2018)0392 – C8-0248/2018 – 2018/0216(COD))

Proposal for a regulation

Article 4 – paragraph 1 – point d

Text proposed by the Commission

(d) 'genuine farmers' shall be defined in a way to ensure that no support is granted to those whose agricultural activity forms only an insignificant part of their overall economic activities or whose principal business activity is not agricultural, while not precluding from support pluri-active farmers. The definition shall allow to determine which farmers are not considered genuine farmers, based on conditions such as income tests, labour inputs on the farm, company object and/or inclusion in registers.

Amendment

(d) 'genuine farmers' may be defined in a way to ensure that no support is granted to those whose agricultural activity forms only an insignificant part of their overall economic activities or whose principal business activity is not agricultural, while not precluding from support pluri-active farmers. The definition shall allow to determine which farmers are not considered genuine farmers, based on conditions such as income tests, labour inputs on the farm, company object and/or inclusion in registers.

<td>(i) improve the response of EU agriculture to societal demands on food and health, including safe, nutritious and sustainable food, food waste, as well as animal welfare.</td>
<td>(i) improve the response of EU agriculture to societal demands on food and health, information on the country of origin of the food, including safe, nutritious, high quality and sustainable food, organic agriculture, food waste, as well as environmental sustainability, antimicrobial resistance and improve animal health and welfare, as well as increase social awareness of the importance of agriculture and rural areas while contributing to the implementation of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development.</td>

Justification

The majority of European consumers want to know the country of origin of the food they buy. This indication must therefore be compulsorily reported on the label in order to prevent food fraud, protect public health and guarantee the consumers' right to information.

<td>2 a. By way of derogation from paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Article, beneficiaries who receive direct payments pursuant to Article 25 (small farmers) are exempted from the application of the cross compliance system and exempted from compliance with statutory management requirements under Union law and the standards for good agricultural and environmental condition of land, as listed in Annex III of this Regulation.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Justification

Small farmers should be exempted from the new enhanced conditionality rules. This provision aims at supporting the existing agricultural structure of small farms in the Union, confirming the exemptions currently in force from the scope of cross compliance.
