Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 42

42. Recalls that the nominations of Executive Board members should be prepared carefully, with full transparency and together with Parliament in line with the Treaties; calls on the Council to draw up a gender-balanced shortlist for all current and upcoming vacancies and to share it with Parliament, thus allowing it to play a more meaningful advisory role in the appointment process; regrets that to date no satisfactory progress has been made;

42. Recalls that the nominations of Executive Board members should be prepared carefully, with full transparency and together with Parliament in line with the Treaties; calls on the Council to draw up a gender-balanced shortlist for all current and upcoming vacancies and to share it with Parliament, thus allowing it to play a more meaningful advisory role in the appointment process; regrets that to date no satisfactory progress has been made; recalls the importance of paragraph 4 of Parliament’s resolution of 14 March 2019 on gender balance in EU economic and monetary affairs nominations, in which Parliament commits itself not to take into account shortlists that do not respect the gender balance principle;

Paragraph 42 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

42a. Reminds the newly appointed ECB President, Christine Lagarde, of the decision and recommendations reached on 5 July 2018 by the European Ombudsman in Case 1697/2016/ANA on the involvement of the former ECB President, Mario Draghi, in the ‘Group of Thirty’; disagrees with the ECB’s argument that membership of such fora is necessary to maintain dialogue with stakeholders, which include supervised banks (ECB’s feedback on the input provided by the European Parliament as part of its resolution on the ECB Annual Report for 2016, April 2018); calls on the ECB to respect the Ombudsman’s recommendations and to carefully review its internal policies in order to curb conflicts of interest that can arise through revolving door practices, as well as the participation of members of the ECB Executive Board and Governing Council in informal fora involving secretive discussions with senior representatives of the private sector;
