Paragraph 1 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

1a. Stresses that the EIB is not a bank, as it is no longer trying to thrive in the banking business but instead pursues objectives that have been politically prescribed, such as support for green and climate policies, the export of human rights and alignment with the EU's foreign policy, all of which make the former bank a political agent of the public banking complex; stresses that the EIB must be expected to generate more losses with ever-increasing probability; disapproves of the ever-increasing influence of the Commission and EU policies on the 'Member States' bank';
