Motion for a resolutionParagraph 27 a (new)Motion for a resolutionAmendment*

27a. Stresses the need to protect the dignity of every human being; condemns surrogacy as a universal crime that compromises the physical integrity of women and the rights of the child, increasing the commercial exploitation of women's bodies and reducing the person to a commodity; rejects any improper use of the human body that involves reproductive exploitation for a mere economic or other type of return and calls for greater safeguards for the rights of women, especially for vulnerable women living in developing countries; believes that the practice of gestation for others should be addressed through international legislative instruments for the protection of human rights;
