

30.9.2021

A9-0234/1

Amendment 1
Urmas Paet
Rapporteur

Report
Urmas Paet
State of EU cyber defence capabilities
(2020/2256(INI))

A9-0234/2021

Motion for a resolution
Recital I a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

1a. whereas in her 2021 State of the Union speech, the Commission President underlined the need for an EU cyber defence policy;

Or. en

30.9.2021

A9-0234/2

Amendment 2

Urmas Paet

Rapporteur

Report

Urmas Paet

State of EU cyber defence capabilities
(2020/2256(INI))

A9-0234/2021

Motion for a resolution

Recital N

Motion for a resolution

N. whereas various state actors like Russia, China and North Korea have been involved in malicious cyber activities in pursuit of political, economic and security objectives that include attacks on critical infrastructure, cyber espionage on and mass surveillance of EU citizens, aiding disinformation campaigns, distributing malware, and limiting access to the internet and the functioning of IT systems; whereas such activities disregard and violate international law, human rights and EU fundamental rights while jeopardising democracy, security, public order and the strategic autonomy of the EU, and therefore warrant a joint EU response, such as through the framework for a joint EU diplomatic response, including the use of restrictive measures envisaged for the EU cyber diplomacy toolbox;

Amendment

N. whereas the Pegasus spyware scandal showed that large numbers of journalists, human rights activists, elected representatives and other EU citizens have been spied on; whereas various state actors like Russia, China and North Korea have been involved in malicious cyber activities in pursuit of political, economic and security objectives that include attacks on critical infrastructure, cyber espionage on and mass surveillance of EU citizens, aiding disinformation campaigns, distributing malware, and limiting access to the internet and the functioning of IT systems; whereas such activities disregard and violate international law, human rights and EU fundamental rights while jeopardising democracy, security, public order and the strategic autonomy of the EU, and therefore warrant a joint EU response, such as through the framework for a joint EU diplomatic response, including the use of restrictive measures envisaged for the EU cyber diplomacy toolbox;

Or. en