Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 64 – point 1

Motion for a resolution

(1) invites the Bureau to define clear and legally certain standards specifying in which cases whistleblower protection can be granted, including for APAs, and to publish those standards;

Amendment

(1) welcomes the rules for APAs, as all other staff members, to benefit from legal protection of the Institution on the basis of Articles 22c and 24 of the Staff Regulations on whistleblowing and Article 4 of Parliament's Internal Rules Implementing Article 22c of the Staff Regulations, which ensure a fair treatment and protection of whistleblowers provided they acted reasonably and honestly; requests the Bureau to continue its efforts to raise awareness of all staff with respect to whistleblower rules and the duty to report possible illegal activities; requests further efforts by the Bureau to promote those standards in a visible manner; recalls that there were no cases of whistleblowing registered by Parliament in 2019 and 2020;
