Tonino Picula

New EU strategy for enlargement
(2022/2064(INI))

Proposal for a recommendation

Paragraph 1 – point (d)

Amendment

(d) enhance the EU's capacity to act by reforming decision-making, including through the introduction of qualified majority voting in areas relevant to the accession process, and ensuring the effective functioning of an enlarged union as a whole; abolish, in particular, the requirement for unanimity when deciding on the start of the negotiation process as well as the opening and closing of individual negotiating clusters and chapters;

(d) maintain the requirement for unanimity in the Council on all matters relating to foreign policy, in particular enlargement-related issues, since any move towards qualified majority voting on foreign-policy matters would undermine the sovereignty of the Member States;
