Paragraph 54 b (new)

Motion for a resolutionAmendment

54b. Highlights the impact that climate-change-related phenomena have on less developed regions and their economies and on working conditions, particularly in the most exposed sectors and professions; believes that green collective bargaining is essential for both workers and employers to address the impact of the green transition on territorial and social cohesion, health and safety at work, the training and reskilling of workers and the creation of new quality jobs within the changing labour market;
