14. Underscores that financial support for third countries should be provided through programmes within Heading 6, which ensure robust oversight and guarantee Parliament's prerogatives; stresses that the use of Facilities is a last resort for the provision of financial support; emphasises that the governance model employed in the Ukraine Facility, in particular with respect to the extensive use of Council implementing decisions, is specific to the context in which it will operate and is therefore exceptional and not to be replicated for any future instrument of this kind;

Amendment

14. Underscores that financial support for third countries should be provided through programmes within Heading 6, which ensure robust oversight and guarantee Parliament's prerogatives; highlights the fact that that any development or humanitarian aid to third countries must be provided on condition that there is smooth cooperation in the repatriation of their citizens illegally residing in the European Union; stresses that the use of Facilities is a last resort for the provision of financial support; emphasises that the governance model employed in the Ukraine Facility, in particular with respect to the extensive use of Council implementing decisions, is specific to the context in which it will operate and is therefore exceptional and not to be replicated for any future instrument of this kind;

Paragraph 34

Motion for a resolution

34. Regrets, therefore, that the draft Council regulation does not take up Parliament's proposal of scrapping the annual cap in payments appropriations for recourse to the Single Margin Instrument, which would have eliminated any risk of a payments crisis;

Amendment

34. Regrets, therefore, that the draft Council regulation does not take up Parliament's proposal of scrapping the annual cap in payments appropriations for recourse to the Single Margin Instrument, which would have eliminated any risk of a payments crisis; recalls that an increase of payment appropriations ceilings does not automatically correlate with better absorption capacity of the EU budget; points out, in this regard, that the amount of outstanding commitments (amounts committed but not yet paid) attained a record EUR 490 billion at the beginning of 2024;
