

Amendment 1Luke Ming Flanagan

on behalf of The Left Group

ReportA9-0073/2024*Luke Ming FlanaganDischarge 2022: EU general budget - Committee of the Regions 2023/2136(DEC)Motion for a resolution*Paragraph 19Motion for a resolution*

19. Notes that, until April 2022, all meetings were held online, whereas as of April 2022 statutory meetings are organised in physical presence while other meetings may be organised remotely or in hybrid format; notes that, until the revision of the Committee's rules of procedure in 2023, a flat-rate meeting allowance of EUR 200 for remote and hybrid meetings continued to be paid according to the rules in place since 2021; notes that as of July 2023 the remote meeting allowance is set at 50 % of the standard meeting allowance (i.e. currently 50 % of EUR 359, equalling EUR 179,50); considers that remote attendance is an important instrument for modern institutions given that, inter alia, it reduces the costs of meetings and allows broader participation, especially during crisis situations as demonstrated during the COVID-19 pandemic; notes with satisfaction that the recommendations of the internal audit on the adequacy of the planning and management of allowances and reimbursements to members for attendances at meetings were satisfactorily implemented;

Amendment

19. Notes that, until April 2022, all meetings were held online, whereas as of April 2022 statutory meetings are organised in physical presence while other meetings may be organised remotely or in hybrid format; notes that, until the revision of the Committee's rules of procedure in 2023, a flat-rate meeting allowance of EUR 200 for remote and hybrid meetings continued to be paid according to the rules in place since 2021; notes that as of July 2023 the remote meeting allowance is set at 50 % of the standard meeting allowance (i.e. currently 50 % of EUR 359, equalling EUR 179,50); considers that remote attendance is an important instrument for modern institutions given that, inter alia, it reduces the costs of meetings and allows broader participation, especially during crisis situations as demonstrated during the COVID-19 pandemic; nevertheless considers that an allowance for remote participation, despite being reduced, is difficult for the public to understand, even more so when taking into consideration the difference paid to the members of the Committee and the members of the EESC for attending meetings remotely; notes with satisfaction that the recommendations of the internal audit on the adequacy of the planning and management of allowances and reimbursements to members for attendances at meetings were satisfactorily implemented;

