Amendment 3

Andrew Duff

Parliament's Rules of Procedure

Rule 195 – paragraph 3 – point a (new)

Present text

Amendment

3a. The final vote on a proposal for a legislative act, at whatever stage of the legislative procedure, shall be by roll call. Votes shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting by political group in the alphabetical order of Members' names, with an indication of how they voted.

Or. en

Justification

The aim of this change is to align Parliament's practice with the best practice in other parliaments and to reflect the increase in our legislative duties consequent to the entry into force of the Treaty of Lisbon. In the interests of increased transparency and greater accountability, the final vote on all legislative reports - at whatever stage of the legislative process - should be taken by roll call, with the result recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

This amendment will replace the original AM 1 of the Draft Report.
