Cyrus Engerer

Draft opinion

Paragraph 3 a (new)

Draft opinion

Amendment

3a. *Regards as insufficient the proposed increase for European Commission representation offices in Member States, and therefore strongly supports a call for increased funding in 2024, to encourage proactive dialogues on EU matters with citizens across the Union;

Or. en

Amendment 7

Maite Pagazaurtundúa, Sandro Gozi, Max Orville

Draft opinion

Paragraph 4 a (new)

Draft opinion

Amendment

4a. *Demands a 20 % increase in the resources devoted to Union citizenship, which have remained static despite repeated demands for policymaking and regulatory interventions, and a foreseeable need for further increases, including as a result of new Member States and treaty reforms. This is especially the case if calls for the creation of an EU citizenship statute are to be met. This initiative requires widespread public consultation and expert input ahead of the European elections. The process should be dynamic, linked to the European dimension of citizenship education and an expansion of citizenship-specific rights.
