Paragraph 2 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

2a. Condemns the horrific working conditions in the textile and apparel industry in LDCs and developing countries, stresses that it is, among others, European-based multinational retailers, often through subcontractors, who are the main beneficiaries of cheap labour and violations of workers' rights in those countries; points out that a legally binding and thus enforceable scheme on Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) is necessary as one step towards ending this gross exploitation;
