Paragraph 64 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

64a. Expresses its concern that the informal practice of waiting for consensus among all Council delegations is delaying urgent climate action, and consequently urges the Council to act at all times on the basis of qualified majority voting in accordance with the Treaties, in particular Article 16(3) TEU in respect of general acts and specifically Article 218(8) TFEU ‘at all stages of the procedure’ for concluding international agreements;
