Paragraph 4

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

4. Expresses deep concern about the fact that evidence of interference is continuously coming to light, often with indications of foreign influence, in the run-up to all major national and European elections, with much of this interference benefiting anti-EU, extremist and populist candidates and targeting specific minorities and vulnerable groups to serve the wider purpose of undermining the appeal of democratic and equal societies;

4. Expresses deep concern about the fact that evidence of interference is continuously coming to light, often with indications of foreign influence, in the run-up to all major national and European elections, with much of this interference benefiting anti-EU, right-wing extremist and populist candidates and targeting specific minorities and vulnerable groups, such as people with a Roma background, Muslims, or people perceived as Muslims, to serve the wider purpose of undermining the appeal of democratic and equal societies;

Paragraph 13

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

13. Calls on all actors involved to continue with their efforts to ensure that the democratic process, as well as elections, are protected from foreign state and non-state interference and manipulation; points in particular to the need to improve media literacy and civic education from an early age in order to allow those targeted by disinformation campaigns to identify the information provided as biased; encourages the Member States, therefore, to include specific courses on media literacy in their school curricula, and to develop information campaigns targeted on the segments of the population that are more vulnerable to disinformation;
